

2103      REVIEW AND SELECTION OF APPLICATION

- 2103.1 Applications shall be grouped by property for purposes of selection.
- 2103.2 For purposes of this chapter, the term “property” means an entire rental housing accommodation owned by the same legal entity which is covered by a Certificate of Occupancy for housing use and is located on one or more contiguous lots and squares as specified in the tax assessment records of the District of Columbia.
- 2103.3 Applications, grouped by property, shall be given an application number based on the use of a random selection process that shall establish an order in which properties shall be considered for funding under the lease in-place program.
- 2103.4 DCHA may limit the number of units assisted under this program in a single property to one hundred and fifty (150) units; provided, that the limit on the number of units assisted per property may be set higher or lower if specifically indicated in the public notice for applications.
- 2103.5 Housing providers shall be sent a letter acknowledging receipt of application for their property and their application number as determined by § 2103.3.
