

2102 APPLICATION FOR LEASE IN-PLACE PROGRAM

- 2102.1 Application shall be in a form prescribed by DCHA and submitted to DCHA consistent with the public notice for application. Information required on the application shall be sufficient for DCHA to make a preliminary determination of eligibility for the program.
- 2102.2 Applications received after the time period stated in the public notice shall not be considered eligible for assistance and shall be so notified.
- 2102.3 Applications for the lease in-place program shall be signed by both the tenant seeking assistance under the program and the housing provider (or authorized agents of the housing provider). Housing providers shall submit all applications for a single property as a group.
- 2102.4 Illegible or incomplete applications may be rejected.
- 2102.5 DCHA may establish an expiration date for all applications received during an application time period. The effect of the expiration date shall be that any application not selected and funded under the program prior to the established date shall expire and have no status for consideration under the program.

SOURCE: Notice of Final Rulemaking published at 36 DCR 4472, 4486 (June 23, 1989).