

5606 WRITING OFF DEBTS

- 5606.1 Heads of Household and former Heads of Household shall remain liable for all unpaid debts which shall remain on the books as a debt to DCHA, unless discharged by order of the United States Bankruptcy Court.
- 5606.2 While a Head of Household's debt shall remain on DCHA's books, DCHA may write off such debts for accounting purposes in accordance with DCHA's policies and procedures.
- 5606.3 Former Heads of Household with unpaid current debts shall be denied readmission to HCVP or admission to other DCHA programs. This does not apply to debts that have been discharged by order of the United States Bankruptcy Court, are barred by District of Columbia's statute of limitations, or are otherwise satisfied.
