

1700        SCOPE OF PROGRAM

- 1700.1 Chapters 17 to 21 of this title shall set forth rules governing the operation of the District of Columbia Tenant Assistance Program, under authority of Title III of the District of Columbia Rental Housing Act of 1985, D.C. Law 6-10 (D.C. Official Code §§ 42-3503.01 to 42-3503.08 (2001)).
- 1700.2 Funding for the operation of the Tenant Assistance Program shall be provided through local District of Columbia revenues.
- 1700.3 The Tenant Assistance Program shall include assistance for the following programs:
- (a) The Emergency Tenant Assistance Program, as outlined in section 1703 of this chapter;
  - (b) The General Application Tenant Assistance Program, as outlined in chapters 18 and 19 of this title;
  - (c) The Designated Housing Unit Tenant Assistance Program, as outlined in chapter 20 of this title; and
  - (d) The Lease In-Place Tenant Assistance Program, as outlined in chapter 21 of this title.

AUTHORITY: Unless otherwise noted, the authority for this chapter is section 302(e) of the Rental Housing Act of 1985, D.C. Law 6-10 (D.C. Official Code § 42-3503.02(e) (2001)) and Mayor's Order 86-27, effective February 6, 1986, 33 DCR 1651 (March 14, 1986).

SOURCE: Notice of Final Rulemaking published at 33 DCR 4396 (July 25, 1986); as amended by Notice of Final Rulemaking published at 36 DCR 4472 (June 23, 1989).

EDITOR'S NOTE: The rules relating to the Tenant Assistance Program were originally adopted by the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development. Under Part IIA(f) and B(2) of Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1987, D.C. Official Code, Vol. 3, 385 (2001), all functions relating to the administration of the Tenant Assistance Program were transferred from the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development ("DHCD") to the Director of the Department of Public and Assisted Housing ("DPAH"). D.C. Law 10-243, the "District of Columbia Housing Authority Act of 1994," abolished the Department of Public and Assisted Housing (DPAH) and established the District of Columbia Housing Authority (DCHA) as a corporate body and legal instrumentality of the government of the District of Columbia. D.C. Law 13-105, the "District of Columbia Housing Authority Act of 1999," repealed D.C. Law 10-243 and re-established the DCHA as an independent authority of the District government and the successor in interest to the former housing authority. Accordingly, the term "Director" in chapters 17 through 21 of this title refers to the Director of the DCHA.
